Unique Expertise

Designing your wedding is a creative venture that requires the coordination and advice of industry experts. Each one, with their unique expertise, has the common goal of bringing your vision to life. A visit with an event or wedding designer opens the doors to endless design ideas and will help give the worried bride confidence that the wedding decor will be executed with flawless precision. Wedding Designers can give creative guidance as well as provide couples with various artistic options, such as fabric details and draping, centrepieces, linens, and even charger plates ensuring a unified and artistic presentation.

Luxury decor, fabulous flowers... It was all part of Vanessa and Nick's vision for their wedding day. The stylish couple worked closely with Toronto wedding designer and stylist Rachel Clingen to create a stunning and unforgettable event. The venue sparkled with unique crystal decor pieces including beautiful glitzy lamp shades. Guests were wowed with the incredible design, which included a lucite head table and couture tufted panels.
