Jessica and Nicholas' love story began when they were teens living down the street from one another. They ended up at the same high school with mutual friends and a crush here and there but never acted on it. It wasn't until they ran into each other while studying the same program in university that they finally started dating.

THE CEREMONY

Having a traditional Catholic ceremony at a local church was very important to both Jessica and Nicholas. Close family attended, friends were included in the service and the photo session held afterwards in and around various Toronto hotspots by Dave Abreu Photography perfectly expressed the newlyweds joy.

THE RECEPTION

Jessica and Nicholas wanted their reception to be a big, beautiful celebration with a party atmosphere. Everywhere you looked, there was something to do, see or eat. From the great band and DJ, macaron ice cream cart, outdoor food truck, Portuguese midnight buffet and floral wall photo booth, every component led the night to be a memorable one.

The Bride Says...

"It's not everyday you get all your loved ones in one room celebrating you and the love you've found. It's an overwhelming but beautiful feeling."

THE DECOR

All Things Pretty Inc. combined the industrial setting of the venue with a romantic palette of pink, ivory and gold to create Jessica's vision of a soft and whimsical wedding. Tables featured clear candelabras and chairs by Detailz Couture Event Rentals, elegant pink stationery by Paper Damsels and luscious florals in high and low arrangements by Rachel A. Clingen Wedding & Event Design. From the drapery backdrop at the sweetheart table to the textured three-tiered cake, pink made its presence known. At the centre of it all was a gorgeous dance floor by Event Graffiti unifying the scene.
